Overview

This event was held as part of the exhibition, "The Time is Right For ...", which in turn formed part of Summerhall's 2017 Edinburgh Festival programme. The exhibition and this screening event were undertaken as part of the European Women's Video Art in the 70s and 80s \(EWVA\) project, funded by the Arts and Humanities Research Council (AHRC).

The screening featured works from the 1970s and 1980s, by several European women artists. Collectively, the works engage with the concept of the artist as a promoter of dialogue, openness, cultural exchange and peace.

The film screenings were followed by a panel discussion, featuring Federica Marangoni (artist), Professor Elaine Shemilt (artist and EWVA Principal Investigator), and Dr Laura Leuzzi (EWVA Research Fellow).
